We understand that the Pahang directors refused the already published offer of £80,000 for a certain part of their territory (Semiliang), and that the same offerers now propose to give £120,000, one-half in cash and one-half in shares. — Straits Times.

Elephants have become too prominent Sordang, and have taken to strolling along the roads. The bridges on the latter, not being calculated to bear their weight, have fared badly in consequence. Two bridges have wholly given way, and the strongest has become quite crooked.

Captain Taylor, late master of the ship

Baron Blantyre, intends, it is said, as soon as he gets home, to appeal against the finding of the Marine Court of Enquiry held recently into the circumstances attending the wreck of his vessel in Banca Straits. His certificate, it will be remembered, was suspended for twelve months.

This Moulmein paper states that wrecked guns have been "observed on the shore near the island of Pulo Gading" and have been picked up by a "Malay" who has written a note on paper with the name Victoria written upon it, evidently the name of the ship which must have become a total wreck and probably all hands lost.

This question whether the Chinese would take kindly to the Switchback was solved on the opening day of the toy railway at Singapore in a very satisfactory manner. The cars began to run at 4 p.m. and were in motion continuously until 11.45 p.m. Over one thousand passengers were carried of whom nearly one half were

The following appointments have been made at the Admiralty:—Commander Henry G. B. Hulbert, to the Impregnable for navigating duties, to date June 30; Lieutenant A. W. Tan Chin Seng adopt not very pleasant way of getting out of the world. A Chinese prisoner in Singapore goal named Koo Kio, under sentence of six months for a rigorous imprisonment for theft, committed suicide by climbing on the wall outside of his cell-door, and letting himself drop to the ground. He fractured his skull and at the inquest held by the Coroner's jury, the verdict was that he had committed suicide. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict accordingly.

A SINGAPORE correspondent under date of 1st October, writes to the Straits Times:—
‘We are trying to get up a syndicate locally to pump away from the low-lying Muzia. I hear the story of desolation there is becoming true. The water is rising, and on Monday it was up to the wheels of the pumping engine. The bungalows are falling down. The Klings have grubbed up all the vegetables out of the back of their gardens. Half the bazaar is closed, and the people are leaving the place out of fear of Serudang, the xowlait agent in the State.’

Tax levied article in the Singapore Chinese press paper Lat Pau of the 23rd inst. dwells on the necessity of appointing Chinese Consuls to the Philippine Islands. The Chinese Residents there are very badly treated. They have to pay a poll-tax of seven or eight dollars a head, well known as Hospital Expenses. As soon as a Chinaman lands at the Philippine Islands he has to pay a fee of three dollars otherwise he will be liable to imprisonment and made to work for half a month as an equivalent for the three dollars. The natives treat the Chinese with the utmost cruelty and legal proceedings do no good for the oppressed Chinamen. When the Chinese Consuls are appointed to the Philippine Islands, the Chinese residents there complained to them of the ill-treatment they had received, and to that effect was made to His Excellency, the Viceroy of Canton, in addition to the fact that the Government of a large sum of money, and sent one of their number to Canton with a petition. His Excellency seeing that something must be done memorialized the throne and recommended that General Wong be appointed to the post of Governor of the Philippine Islands. The Memorial was taken up, and unfortunately the General was taken ill at Shanghai and could not proceed to his post. Since then no further action seems to have been taken, and as His Excellency is now dead, the matter has been dropped. It is stated that his successor, the Governor, did not bestow so much of his attention to the question as it deserves. Alas! How unfortunate the Chinese residents at the Philippine Islands are!—Translated by Singapore Free Press.

The American ship George S. Homer, which had grounded near Anjer when on a voyage to Hongkong with a cargo of petroleum, part of which had been lost, was towed off by the tug Atterton and is now on her way to Batavia. She will discharge the remainder of her cargo there before docking.

The Yangtze is still rising, and at midnight of Monday last the watermark at Anker had reached 48 feet. The streets were flooded, to a depth of between two and three feet, while the water on the Race Course was seven feet deep. Along the banks of the river as far as the eye could reach was water, only low tops of the trees and tops of some of the houses being visible. At Kiating the water was up to within an inch of the Bund, while the back streets, the city and the country for miles were under water. The watermark was 28 ft. 10 inches on the morning of the 9th. There was an immense quantity of debris floating down the river.

The Java Bode of the 28th ultimo assured the public that nothing certain is known about the policy the Government intends to pursue in Achene. The likelihood is that the Government cannot yet make up its mind on the subject. The general opinion leans towards admitting the untenable nature of the position taken up in Achene, and the maintenance of the negotiations with the Achene chiefs which have brought on a heavy outlay of money without adequate results. Rumour says that it is intended to send a member of Council to Achene, as Government Commissioner, to find out what matters really stand there. The mission, however, depends upon the view the Minister for the Colonies will take of the idea. The Home Government fancies that the hitherto hostile Achene chiefs display a greater friendly and submissive spirit, and promises to come to terms by pursuing a more energetic policy in carrying on the war.

The China Times says:—The Convention between the Chinese Telegraphic Administration and the Eastern Extension and Great Northern Cable Companies, which was concluded at Peking last year, has now been signed by His Excellency Li Hung-chang, under the full authority of the Tungchi Yamen, and H. E. M. Comany, Minister of Russia, representing the interests not only of the Imperial Russian Government, but also of the two Cable companies. The document was signed on the 2nd instant. M. Comany and suite left the same evening by boat for Peking. So far as we learn, the new convention differs in no essential particular from that previously agreed to at Peking, the only exception being that permission is now given to the Chinese Administration to connect with the Russian main lines at Kichat, a concession which it is believed the Cable Companies will agree to.

A meeting of the different dignitaries in Singapore was convened the other day by Sir Charles Warren and other officers with the view of considering the advisability of establishing a District Military Temperance Association, and after a good deal of talk, the details of the proposed association were discussed. The association is to be a purely voluntary one, and its object is to promote the cause of temperance generally, though indulging moderately in the use of alcoholic liquors themselves. The association was let be drawn out by a committee appointed from the officers present, and the desirability of having a place outside the barracks to which members might resort for instruction and amusement was strongly supported. The society, while purely a religious one, will be strictly non-sectarian, a proof of which intention could be seen in the presence, at the meeting, of the Anglican, Roman Catholic, and Methodist representatives.

Retzner wired on 1st October that five vessels more are to be added to the Mediterranean Squadron, and in the latest United Service Gazette (7th Sept.) we see the following:—The Hero will not, as was intended previous to the manoeuvres, proceed to the Mediterranean, but the Orion, now at Singapore, is to return to the Mediterranean early next year, and it is stated that the Undaunted, cruiser, at Devonport, is to be prepared for service on the same station.

On the other night, says the Strait Times, what might have been a serious disturbance between Hindus and Mahomedans in South Bridge Road was fortunately prevented through the timely arrival of the police. It appears that the Hindus have been having high jinks there, and were, in a corner, the cause of some particular event, and have nearly given their own air to the road. Last night they made a step further, and carried the "old fellow" round their own place of worship, and then on to the front of the Mahomedan Temple, where they commenced their vile music. This lasted for a moment or so, when the air became blackened with clouds of bricks, stones, and other missiles from the Mahomedans. The "joss" got his nose pinched, and he was taken to the hospital. The Hindus were about to retaliate, and commenced the fun, but were stopped by the police. Two or three cuts with a stick on the backs of some of the "belligerents" sent the whole to their proper places.

The Statesman writes:—Tantia, the great Bhil outlaw—the Robin Hood of India, as he has been called—has, in his imprisonment, come under the ban of civilization: he has been photographed, and his photo has been published in the Illustrated London News. The photo is a very attractive one, but a certain look of sardonic sneer beneath the rugged brow reveals something of that rugged touch of humanity, the sympathy, the compassion to feel for and befriend the weak who are despised by the strong, against whom he was always in arms, that has made the name of Tantia revered amongst the dumb hordes of Central India, once the scene of his happy hunting grounds. Tantia's likeness is worth preserving: he is the hero of many a romance in real life.

THE SMITH-BRANDT LITIGATION.

In the Police Court to-day, before Mr. Robinson, Mr. Oscar Brandt was charged, at the instance of Mr. Robert Fraser Smith, editor of the Hongkong Telegraph, with criminal libel. The summons set forth that the defendant unlawfully did write and publish a certain false, scandalous and defamatory libel of and concerning the said Robert Fraser Smith, to wit, the said libel to be found in the issue of the Hongkong Telegraph of the 10th inst.

Mr. Webster asked to be furnished with a copy of the information.

His Worship said he was entitled to that, and a copy was handed to Mr. Brandt by Mr. Webster.

Mr. Brandt (perusing the document)—The allegations in this information are false.

Mr. Webster—Your Worship, the defendant has no right to address the Court at this stage. I think it for better that the prosecution should proceed at the first place, after which I may be able to make a statement.

Mr. Brandt—I should like to be supplied with a copy of the letter, your Worship.

Mr. Webster—Certainly.

Mr. Brandt—I might have been provided with it sooner.

His Worship—If you wish for an adjournment on that ground I shall grant it.

Mr. Brandt—I do ask for an adjournment, your Worship, in order to get legal assistance.

Mr. Webster—And I oppose any adjournment. He was served with a summons on Saturday afternoon, and if he wanted legal assistance he has had plenty of time to get it. Mr. Brandt, so far as I know, may be going to leave the colony.

His Worship—I shall certainly grant an adjournment if the defendant asks for it, on the ground that he should have been supplied with a copy of the alleged libel.

Mr. Webster—This Court can't be allowed to play fast and loose with procedure for the convenience of Mr. Brandt. If he wants legal assistance he can have the witnesses brought back here for cross-examination. That is in accordance with the practice of the Court.

His Worship—I have no objection to that course.

Mr. Brandt—My solicitor won't be able to bear the witnesses in examination.

His Worship—He will have an opportunity of reading the evidence.

Mr. Brandt—I don't think it is fair in Mr. Webster to interrupt.

Mr. Webster—Mr. Brandt has no locus standi at present.

His Worship—He has a locus standi.

Mr. Webster—No, your Worship. I submit that he has no locus standi.

Mr. Brandt—I should like my legal adviser to be here to hear the evidence.

His Worship—I shall take a full note of the evidence and he will have an opportunity of reading the notes.

Mr. Brandt—I have another ground for adjournment, and that is that this summons has been issued after I had issued a writ against the complainant in a civil action, and this is simply brought for a compromise to get out of that case.

Mr. Webster (continuing)—I believe the quotation in German means that nobody can touch Smith without being defamed. Now, your Worship, we contend that that letter is a gross, infamous, malicious and slanderous libel, written with the intent to hold the plaintiff up to ridicule in his position as editor of a paper, and to make him the laughing stock of the colony, by the publication thereof, and upon that I shall ask you to commit the defendant for trial. It will be my duty to prove the publication of the letter, and that I shall proceed to do.

His Worship—What you say is not what we consider the libel.

Mr. Webster—We attach the whole letter as a gross and infamous libel.

His Worship—That is not specific enough. You don't contend that every word in the letter is libellous, do you?

Mr. Webster—The whole letter is a libel. It is written in paragraphs, the charges are deliberate and they all refer one to the other, and it would be almost impossible to separate them. The only question for your Worship to consider is this—In there anything at all on the face of this letter that prima facie constitutes a libel? If there is, your Worship has no alternative but to commit the defendant for trial and then let a jury deal with it.

His Worship—It is for me to pick out the libel. It is for you to designate the libel and show it to the defendant.

Mr. Webster—The whole letter is not libellous. I am not going to pick out a sentence, but I am going to pick out a paragraph, and I am going to pick out a sentence, and I am going to pick out a word, and I am going to pick out a syllable, and I am going to pick out a letter, and I am going to pick out a dot, and I am going to pick out a comma, and I am going to pick out a semicolon, and I am going to pick out an exclamation mark, and I am going to pick out a question mark, and I am going to pick out a colon, and I am going to pick out a dash, and I am going to pick out a period, and I am going to pick out a full stop, and I am going to pick
